

Emeriti and Staff Retiree Parking Permit & Daily Discounted ePermit Instructions 2022-2023

Emeriti/Retirees Process:

1. Customer contacts UCLA Emeriti/Retirees Relations Center (ERRC) at (310) 825-7456 or emeriti@errc.ucla.edu to begin the process.
2. ERRC submits online paperwork to Transportation Services with the customer's information and the product they would like - annual parking permit or daily discounted ePermit (formerly known as ridecard).
  - If customer chooses the daily discounted ePermit option, the emeriti/retiree will pay the discounted rate for parking on the ePermit portal before each visit to campus.
  - If customer chooses the annual parking permit option, they will pay for the permit on the ePermit portal.
  - Eligibility is based on years of service, except for emeriti permits that are offered to members of Academic Senate.
  - For assistance with the ePermit portal system, call UCLA Transportation Services at (310) 794-7433.

*Due to a California Supreme Court ruling, UCLA will be required to begin collecting a 10% Parking Occupancy Tax on behalf of the City of Los Angeles effective January 1, 2023. This affects all parking fees charged after January 1, 2023. Prices below reflect the added tax.
